

Educational Webinar

Credit Unions, Co-operatives, and Canada's Critical Payment Infrastructure

with Josh Lerner, Manager of Policy, Payments Canada

Tuesday, September 29, 11 am - 12 pm (SK/CST/GMT-6)

In this educational session, we will:

- Explore Payments Canada's critical payment systems.
- Examine connections between Payments Canada and the Credit Union sector.
- Highlight how credit unions interact with and influence Canada's national payment infrastructure.

Outcomes: an understanding of clearing and settlement systems and how credit unions access national payments infrastructure.

About our Speaker:

Josh leads Payments Canada's policy direction and supports its government relations efforts. Prior to this role, he regulated Ontario's credit unions and caisses populaires at the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario, contributing to the rollout of the new Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires Act. He's passionate about payments, the credit union sector, and building strong, effective teams.
